

Press Release

AsianInvestor Recognizes Gaw Capital Partners at its “2016 Korea Awards”

Awarded in the Category of "Institutional Solution Provider: Alternatives"

Hong Kong, June 24, 2016 – Real estate private equity firm Gaw Capital Partners has been recognized by AsianInvestor at its “2016 Korea Awards” in the category of “Institutional Solution Provider: Alternatives.” This is the sixth year for AsianInvestor’s Korea awards, selected by the magazine’s editorial team.

Goodwin Gaw, Chairman and Managing Principal of Gaw Capital Partners, said “We’re honored to be recognized by AsianInvestor for our work with our institutional clients in Korea.” Gaw Capital Partners has an extensive track record of servicing Korean institutional investors. Gateway Fund under management by Gaw Capital Partners has acquired the well-known mixed-use project Twincity Namsan in Seoul. Gaw Capital has also provided separate account investment and real estate private equity fund management services for Korean clients since 2010. Notable separate account transactions include: 333 Market Street in San Francisco, Apple’s Cupertino Gateway headquarters in Silicon Valley, Three First National Plaza in Chicago and Vintners’ Place in London.

According to AsianInvestor: “Gaw works with many government funds and securities companies, often provides them with their first-hand experience of investing in US, UK or Chinese commercial property.” According to a Korean investor testimonial to Gaw Capital Partners in AsianInvestor: “Korean institutional investors have been willing to have real estate exposure in the US, but securing a single deal in the US as a foreign investor is known to be extremely difficult…with Gaw Capital’s superb professionalism (we) successfully closed a unique transaction.”